

Drupal Benchmark

This benchmark requires space on Drupal and will source its data from there while running the benchmark.

Queries the title, body and a cover image from Drupal. Creates pages for that and displays those three things as “Articles”. Those individual article pages and the homepage share a common “Layout” component (in `src/components`) that can be swapped (`layout_1.js` and `layout_2.js`) to simulate a code change in multiple pages.