

hot-code-push

Source code of released version | Source code of development version

Enables Meteor's hot code push functionality in development and production by including the `autoupdate` and `reload` packages in your app.