

Welcome

Welcome to the Visual Studio Code Wiki. These pages are primarily intended for those who wish to contribute to the VS Code project by submitting bug reports, suggesting new features, building extensions, commenting on new ideas, or even by submitting pull requests.

Please refer to the sidebar (on the right) for details on Project Management, Contributing to VS Code, and Documentation.

If you are looking for more information on using VS Code, please visit our the Visual Studio Code portal and follow us on Twitter!
