

VS Code Automation Package

This package contains functionality for automating various components of the VS Code UI, via an automation "driver" that connects from a separate process. It is used by the `smoke` tests.