

You may also need to check <https://chromium.googlesource.com/chromiumos/docs/+HEAD/glossary.md>.

- LGTM: “Looks good to me”, commonly used to approve a code review.
- PTAL: Please take a look.
- RSLGTM: “Rubber-stamp looks good to me”. The reviewer approving without doing a full code review.
- TSC: Technical Steering Committee. Detailed info see TSC.
- WIP: “Work In Progress” - e.g. a patch that’s not finished, but may be worth an early look.
- WPT: web-platform-tests
- godbolt: Compiler Explorer run compilers interactively from your web browser and interact with the assembly. Was created by and is primarily administrated by Matt Godbolt.
- primordials: Pristine built-ins that are not affected by prototype pollution and tampering with built-ins.