

Implements fundamental Angular framework functionality, including directives and pipes, location services used in routing, HTTP services, localization support, and so on.

The `CommonModule` exports are re-exported by `BrowserModule`, which is included automatically in the root `AppModule` when you create a new app with the CLI `new` command.