

mobile-experience

Source code of released version | Source code of development version ***

A set of Cordova/PhoneGap-specific packages that set some good defaults when building for mobile. These packages only activate when you are building a native Android or iOS app.

1. mobile-status-bar - avoid the status bar information covering up your app content
2. launch-screen - cover the app with a launch image so that people don't have to see things loading