

Point Object

- x number
- y number

Note: Both x and y must be whole integers, when providing a point object as input to an Electron API we will automatically round your x and y values to the nearest whole integer.