

Point Object

- `x` number
- `y` number

Note: Both `x` and `y` must be whole integers, when providing a point object as input to an Electron API we will automatically round your `x` and `y` values to the nearest whole integer.