Implements Angular's core functionality, low-level services, and utilities.

- Defines the class infrastructure for components, view hierarchies, change detection, rendering, and event handling.

- Defines the decorators that supply metadata and context for Angular constructs.

- Defines infrastructure for dependency injection (DI), internationalization (i18n), and various testing and debugging facilities.