PowerToys Source Code

Code organization

The PowerToys are split into DLLs for each PowerToy module (`modules` folder), and an executable (`runner` folder) that loads and manages those DLLs.

The settings window is a separate executable, contained in `settings-ui` folder. It utilizes a WebView to display an HTML-based settings window.

The `common` contains code for a static library with helper functions, used by both the runner and the PowerToys modules.