Grafana Fake Data Datasource - Native Plugin

This is the built in Fake Data Datasource that is used before any datasources are set up in your Grafana installation. It means you can create a graph without any data and still get an idea of what it would look like.